7. Lack of Farming

6. Industrialization

In cities, industrialization grew because of large worker populations. Urbanization allowed for started businesses and increased demand for goods. The middle class opportunity and economy inspired industry: ideas about enlightenment.

Social Mobility

5. Education

The middle class inventions made manufacturing possible: new technologies and expansion of education.

4. Enlightenment

3. Social Mobility

Opportunity and economy inspired industry: ideas about enlightenment.

2. Expansion of Education

Inventions made manufacturing possible: new technologies and ideas about enlightenment.

1. Scientific Revolution

Causes of the Industrial Revolution and America. We were shaped in Britain and quickly spread to the rest of Europe. The Industrial Revolution was a time when industry flourished.

During the 19th century, 1805.

This meant more things were produced and that they were made faster. This increased an incredible amount of change in society.

Domestic to Factory

Goods were produced from human labor to machines. This meant more things were produced and that they were made faster. The Industrial Revolution was a fundamental change in the way industry.